Teaching Scholar Recipients
Summer 2008

Kathleen Blue (Anthropology)
Childhood Health in Anglo-Saxon Britain

Jinbong Choi (Mass Communications)
Framing the Battle for the Blue House: A Comparison of Four International Newspapers' Coverage of the 2007 South Korean Presidential Election

David Engen (Speech Communication)
The Third Place in Blue Earth County

Vicki Hunter (Sociology and Corrections)
Identity Work in Women's Re-Entry Experiences

Rajiv Kapadia (Electrical and Computer Engineering and Technology)
Open Course Ware in Digital Signal Processing

Guynel Reid (Educational Studies: K-12 and Secondary Programs)
Researching Program Design: Structural Forms and Functions

Elizabeth Sandell (Educational Studies: Elementary and Early Childhood)
*A Cross-Cultural Instructional Redesign Project with Northern International University,
Magadan, Russian Federation: Incorporating Guided Inquiry Learning and Online Teaching Strategies in EEC 227 Early Learning and Development*

James Slack (Information Systems and Technology)
Applied Data-Modeling Supplement for iSYS 441: Database Modeling for Applications

Kristen Treinen (Speech Communication)
Integrating Technology into the Classroom Environment: Utilizing Podcasts as a Pedagogical Tool

Michael Wells (Information Systems and Technology)
Researching Outsourcing to Stay Current in the Computers in Society Course

Hongxia Yin (Mathematics and Statistics)
*Creation of Two Code Packages for Computer Aided Study in Mathematical Modeling
And Optimization Methods*