

Summer 2013 Teaching Scholar Fellowship Recipients

Patricia Hoffman (Educational Studies: K-12 & Secondary Programs)

Developing an Integrated Advising Tool: Habits of Mind and Intellectual Virtues for the 21st Century Learner

Ihsuan Li (Economics)

A Guide (textbook) on Undergraduate Research in Economics

Elizabeth (Liz) Miller (Art)

Artist Collectives as a Model for Community Engagement: Creating a Large-Scale, Community-Based, Collaborative Project

Martin Mitchell (Geography)

Minnesota: A Diversity of Landscapes and Experiences

Gretchen Perbix (English)

Social Media for Technical Communicators

Claudia Pragman (Management)

Using Online Video Tutorials to Teach Analytics

Farhad Reza (Mechanical and Civil Engineering)

Development of Visual Learning Tools for Engineering Students using MATLAB

Patrick Sexton (Human Performance)

Development of an Electronic Book (e-book) Laboratory Manual for Athletic Training Students in the Therapeutic Modalities Course

Christophe Veltsos (Computer Information Science)

Revising Online-Ready Labs for the Information Warfare Course

Ruijun Zhao (Mathematics and Statistics)

Design a New Interdisciplinary Course in Computational Science